

eduphoria!

Accounts are automatically generated when Technology runs a synchronization tool from Active Directory (local login). Your username is always your email address. Your password is automatically generated by the eduphoria! system and emailed to you. If you forget your password, you can pull up the login screen, enter your email address, and click “Forgot Password”. eduphoria! will email you your password.