INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

A Tradition of Excellence for All

Pine Tree ISD 2016-2017 Title I Family Engagement Plan

Family Engagement:

Pine Tree Independent School District believes that parents are partners with school staff in the education of their children and that family engagement and empowerment are essential at all levels throughout the school district. Family engagement means the participation of parents in regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, by ensuring

- A. that parents are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child;
- B. that parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at school;
- C. that parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at home.

Everyone gains if school and home work together to promote high achievement by our children.

General Expectation:

*The school district will ensure that Title I campuses are family friendly and will work with parents as partners as partners in the education of children.

*The school district will ensure that programs, activities and programs are in place for the engagement of parents in all of its schools with Title I, Part A programs.

*The school district will work with its schools to ensure that the required school-level parents engagement policies meet the requirements of NCLB including school-parent compacts.

*The school district will involve the parents of children served in Title I, Part A schools in decisions about how the family engagement activities will be utilized.

*The school district and its schools will provide full opportunities for the participation of parents with limited English proficiency, parents with disabilities, and parents of migratory children. This includes providing information and school reports in an understandable and uniform format, and including alternative formats upon request, and to the extent practicable, in a language parents understand.

In order to comply with the guidelines of the No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB), Pine Tree ISD will implement the following procedures and activities to ensure effective family engagement.

Pine Tree ISD will:

1. Ensure that the Primary campus provide appropriate parent notification in these areas:
 - a. Parents have the right to request Highly Qualified and certification information for their child's teacher.
 - b. Identifying their child's participation in intervention programs
 - c. Notice that their child is being taught by a non-Highly Qualified teacher for four consecutive weeks or longer.
2. Ensure that teachers communicate regularly with parents about their child's progress by:
 - a. Making phone calls
 - b. Providing class newsletters/calendars, etc.
 - c. Sending frequent student progress reports to parents
 - d. Providing parent-teacher conferences
3. Provide support to assist the primary campus in planning and implementing effective parent engagement activities including:
 - a. Having a Family Engagement Team (made up of teachers, administrators, parents, and the Family Engagement Liaison) as a sub-committee of the district's Site-Based Decision Making Committee to review and make recommendations regarding campus-level family engagement activities.
 - b. Having a district-level Family Engagement Liaison to coordinate and support the Parent Engagement program at each Title I campus
 - c. Having the Family Engagement Liaison assist the primary campus in helping to plan and implement the Family Engagement events.
4. Provide professional development for the primary campus teachers and staff in how to reach out to communicate with and work with parents as equal partners. Also, professional development opportunities for educators on culturally responsive, evidence-based strategies that support the education of the child. Professional development will be supported through continuous collaboration during PLCs and faculty meetings to ensure a deeper understanding of cultural responsiveness among all staff.

5. The school district will ensure that the primary campus will conduct an annual Title I meeting to explain ESEA requirements and the campus' implemented programs and how this program will benefit the students at the primary campus.

6. Reduce barriers for parents to participate in Family Engagement events by:

- a. Providing school meetings at a variety of days and times
- b. Providing babysitting at Family Engagement events, as needed

7. Monitor information (attendance demographics, meeting types, meeting times, etc.) on Family Engagement events at the primary campus to help ensure that barriers to effective family engagement are eliminated

8. Advertise the family engagement events in a timely manner, and to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand by using multiple formats to advertize each meeting (for example: Phone Messenger (reminders and use of auto-phone system), meeting flyers, website, e-mail)

9. Pine Tree Primary School will provide opportunities for parents to increase their own understanding of:

a. Parenting:

Parenting Activities may include, but are not limited to:
