CECILE MOESCHLE SCHOLARSHIP TRUST

Background...

The Cecile Moeschle Scholarship Trust was created in accordance with the Last Will and Testament of Longview philanthropist Cecile Moeschle who died June 17, 1982, at the age of 53. She desired that deserving high school graduates have an opportunity to obtain a college education; therefore, this educational trust was created to provide financial assistance to worthy graduating seniors at Longview High School and Pine Tree High School.

In addition to endowing the scholarship which bears the name, Cecile Moeschle has demonstrate her love for Longview through a variety of contributions. She provided the largest individual gift toward the construction of the Maude Cobb Activity Center which is named in honor of her beloved late grandmother.

Application Information and Selection Criteria...

Applications for the Cecile Moeschle Scholarship are available from guidance counselors at Longview High School and Pine Tree High School. Eligible students are required to submit completed applications to their high school counselor no later than April 1st.

Each application must include four letters of reference and recommendation from person who are not related to the application by blood or marriage. At least two of these letters must be from teachers who have taught the students within the last two years.

Selection Committees (one from each high school) will review applications from their respective schools and select five recipients from Longview High School and five from Pine Tree High School.

The selection committee will choose scholarship recipients based on the following criteria:

Academic record- An overall grade point average of 85 (B) or better

Citizenship and Character- Personal initiative, activities, accomplishments, and recommendations; factors including the applicant's potential for a successful college career

Financial need- A demonstrable need for financial assistance without which the applicant might not have an opportunity to attend college.

Policies and Procedures...

- 1. Regions Bank will administer the Cecile Moeschle Scholarship Trust from which scholarships will be granted annually to successful applicants from Longview High and Pine Tree School.*
- 2. Each scholarship award will be in the amount of $1,000 each year and $4,000 maximum during the recipient's college career. (The trustee has the authority to change these amounts at its discretion in accordance with the provisions of the trust).*
- 3. Scholarship recipients have the right to select the college or university of his or her choice so long as it is fully accredited, recognized college, university or community college located in the State of Texas.*
- 4. The trustee will maintain records of scholarship recipients while the student is in college. Recipients will be required to maintain a minimum 2.5 (C) grade point average while enrolled in a full academic course load of 12-hours per semester (minimum). The student also must maintain a high standard of moral, ethical, and intellectual behavior. (The 12-hour semester requirement may be waived for good cause by the trustee).*
- 5. Verification of the student's registration for the current semester and maintenance of the required grade point average and course load will be required before the scholarship check will be issued by the trustee. Recipients will submit to the trustee (Regions Bank) a grade report at the end of each semester and an official transcript of record at the end of the spring semester.*
- 6. The trustee will issue scholarship award check at the beginning of each semester in the amount of one-half of the annual award.*
- 7. Should any recipient fail to meet the requirements necessary to receive proceeds from the scholarship fund, the award will be terminated.*
